Sheep for Sale.

About 300 nice, young ewes, fresh from the mountains. W. R. Cook.

Sacks-Sacks.

H. A. B. Marksburg & Son keep on hand new sacks, and will sell to the farmers at cost.

For Legislature.

The name of Hon. James N. Denny is being prominently mentioned in connection with the democratic nomination for the Legislature. A cleaner or more capable man could not be found.

Jack Turner Dead.

Jack Turner, the man tried with Doc Turner for killing Marion Sebastian in this city two years ago, died Sunday. He was a well-to-do farmer. Mr. Turner had only been ill for a few days.

Better Fixed.

We have again secured the services of Mr. R. E. Henry as foreman of THE RECORD office. This work has been done for several months by ye editor, who will now have better opportunity to get up "copy" for the paper. We are better fixed than ever before for doing job work, and earnestly ask a trial order.

The Record's Premium.

THE RECORD's premium at the Danville Fair is for Fancy Turnout, shown by lady and gentleman. Considerations, general appearance of rig and occupants. This will be one of the special attractions of the third day, Friday, Sept. 1.

House Bought.

Mr. A. B. Bastin, the clever proprietor of the telephone exchange, bought of sheriff Ward, the house and lot, adjoining the exchange, for $2,000. Mr. Bastin will move his family here in a few days. We extend him the right hand of fellowship and welcome him as a citizen. He's the kind we want—a hustler.

A Paint Lick Enterprise.

Adams' Fistula Salve, put up by Adams & Fish, Paint Lick, is meeting with ready sale everywhere. Persons who have used it say it's a marked success and a sure cure for Fistula, Pile, Swinney, Scratches, Enlargement, Greasy Heel, etc. It is sold on a written guarantee, and money refunded if not as represented. ap-13

Death of Mrs. Dunn.

It was with great surprise and sorrow that the many friends of the family learned of the death of Mrs. W. G. Dunn, which occurred at an early hour Saturday morning, at the family residence near the Fork church. Mrs. Dunn had only been ill a day or so and was only considered in a dangerous condition for several hours before the end came. The physician pronounced the cause congestion of the brain. The deceased belonged to one of the most widely connected families in the county, and was a great favorite among all. She was a good Christian woman, an exemplary wife and mother, a great church worker, and had been prominently connected with the local charities for years, to which she gave liberally of her time and means, and her loss will be greatly felt by all with whom she was associated. She leaves a heart-broken husband and three children to mourn her loss. The deceased was 47 years old and member of Pleasant Grove church. Funeral services were conducted at the residence by Eld. J. L. Allen Sunday morning, and the remains interred in the Lancaster Cemetery.

Nominated for Governor.

Mr. O. T. Wallace, of this county, was nominated for governor on the Prohibition ticket. Mr. Wallace is one of Garrard's most prominent and influential citizens. He is an ardent supporter of the temperance cause and has always worked faithfully for the advancement of sobriety. The temperance party is making good headway in Kentucky and if all its supporters would work with the same energy as does Mr. Wallace, the vote would be brought out at every election.

Deserving Young Man.

The subject of this sketch, Mr. Robert E. Hughes, is a Lancaster boy of whom our citizens are very proud. Bob is what may be called a "self-made" young man. When quite a small boy he went to work in his father's office as "devil" on the Lancaster News. This was in 1885. He displayed a wonderful fondness for all branches of newspaper work, and when the News was bought by Jas. R. Marrs and THE RECORD established, he was immediately put to work as local editor and solicitor. He held this place until 1893 when he gave it up to accept a place as U. S. Gauger. He held the latter position until 1897, at which time he resigned to accept a place as reporter on the Louisville Commercial. The Commercial people readily recognized his marked ability and six months later promoted him to city editor of that paper. He has filled the latter until the present time. Mr. Hughes is now visiting relatives in Lancaster, and yesterday received a telegram from the Commercial managers asking if he would accept the place of night editor, a position of honor and responsibility. He has not decided whether he will accept the place, but will determine when he returns to the city. Mr. Hughes was married in 1892 to Miss Maggie, oldest daughter of Col. and Mrs. Jno. W. Miller. Bob is a boy entitled to great credit for the energy he has displayed in his work, and his Lancaster friends are very proud of him.

For Sale or Rent.

The property (store and residence combined) of Dr. Thomas B. Nichols, at Paint Lick, Ky. For terms, call on or address W. I. Williams, attorney, Lancaster, Ky.

Line About Completed.

The telephone line will be completed so as to make up-country connected by early next week and then we can talk direct to Stanford, Richmond, Lancaster, Danville, Nicholasville and Lebanon, and intervening points, and very soon connection will be made with Lexington, Frankfort and other northern points.—Somerset Paragon.

Fall and Winter Suits.

I have just received Wananaker and Brown's absolutely all-wool samples, fresh and attractive, with a guarantee on material, workmanship and fit. With 40 years experience they defy competition in quality and prices.

I also handle the goods from the great Western Tailoring company, of Chicago, which is up to date in style and down to date in prices. Suits made by the best tailors, cut to your measure, sewed throughout with the best standard silk, at $9 to $30. Compare goods and prices before buying. No fit no pay. M. D. Hughes, agt.

Eight Branches of 'Em.

An exchange, in speaking of the obstacles to the growth and development of a town, says: "Town killers are classified into eight separate branches, as follows: First, those who go out of town to do their shopping; second, those who are opposed to improvements; third, those who prefer a quiet town to one of push and business; fourth, those who imagine they own the town; fifth, those who deride public spirited men; sixth, those who oppose every movement that does not appear to benefit them; eighth, those who seek to injure the credit or reputation of individuals."

Library for Graded School.

Several public-spirited citizens last week started out to secure enough money to purchase a suitable library for the Graded School. Their efforts were promptly rewarded, as $118.75 was secured with a day's work. J. E. Stormes agreed to deliver the books at just what they cost him, and they will be ordered at once. Prof. Patterson hands in following for publication: In behalf of the pupils of the Lancaster Graded School. I desire to return thanks to the following ladies and gentlemen for their liberal donations towards purchasing a library for the Lancaster Graded School: Y. M. C. A. W. I. Williams, Mrs. John Gill, R. H. Batson, J. M. Logan, W. McC. Johnson, W. H. Kinnaird, J. R. Haselden, R. Kinnaird, J. Joseph, J. M. Duncan, J. E. Robinson, J. I. Hamilton, Theo. Currey, Geo. D. Robinson, W. O. Rigney, H. T. Logan, T. S. Elkin, L. Y. Leavell, W. B. Mason, J. C. Hemphill, L. L. Walker, Louis Landram, W. T. West, B. F. Hudson, R. E. McRoberts, Wm. Ward, G. S. Gaines, Wm. Herndon, Robt. Embry, David Ross, G. M. Patterson, Letcher Owsley, J. W. Hamilton, J. C. Robinson, S. C. Denney, J. W. Miller, J. B. Kinnaird, W. J. Roman, Miss Annie Rayston, Miss Jayne Shumate, Miss Knapp West, J. A. Benzley. Respectfully, J. H. Patterson.

The Most Fatal Disease.

More and more die of Kidney troubles than of any other disease. When the first symptoms of this disease appear, no time should be lost in taking Foley's Kidney Cure, which is guaranteed or money refunded 50cts and 1.00 C. C. & J. E. Stormes.

In Memoriam.

Died, at Adams, Ind., July 11th 1899, Leslie Buaman, the little child of Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. Vanhous. He was ill about six weeks. Leslie was ten months and one day old. The funeral was held at Christian church by Rev. Morrow, after which our little boy was laid to rest in the Adams grave yard. He leaves behind father, mother, sister and two brothers, one little brother having gone before.

He has gone on to his father, And his smiles we sadly miss. Till we meet beyond the river In the valley of bliss.

But oh! the dainty pillow next to mine, Is never rumpled by a shining head, Our little one from us has gone, The little boy I use to kiss is dead. MOTHER.

Long Irritation.

Is the forerunner to consumption. Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar Honey will cure it, and give such strength to the lungs that a cough or cold will not settle there. Twenty-five cents at McRoberts Drug Store.

MRS. AMERICA WALKER.

Was born in November 1819, died on the 24th of July 1899, at the home of her son-in-law, Mr. Jesse Doty, near Lancaster, Ky. She was a good woman, and a devoted christian, and held a strong influence for good in the community.

She loved God's house, and His Words were her constant theme, holding Him before her loved ones as their guide in life. All feel the loss. She leaves five children and one sister, Mrs. Ann Walker, of Lancaster. The funeral was preached by Rev. H. N. Faulconer in the Presbyterian church, of which Mrs. Walker was a member, choosing for his text, "And they shall walk with me in white," Rev. 3-4.

She hath escaped all danger now, Her pain and fighting all fled, The crown of joys is on her brow, Eternal glories o'er her shed. H. N. F.

Coughed 25 years.

I suffered for 25 years with a cough, and spent hundreds of dollars with doctors and for medicine to no avail until I used Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey. It has saved my life.—J. C. Rosell, Grantsburg, Ill. McRoberts Drug Store.

ROCK CASTLE SPRINGS.

Right merrily pass the pleasant summer days at this ideal spot for idle dreaming, and restfulness from care. Rock Castle at midsummer, what a series of delights is conjured up by the mention of the name! Romantically beautiful with its picturesque and varying scenery. This region seems indeed favored of the gods, and when to its natural charms are added unusual accommodations for a place of the kind, no more fitting spot could be selected for the summer idler. Situated beside the lovely Rock Castle river and surrounded on all sides by fine crowned peaks, the hotel offers a most tempting shelter. The breeze that comes fresh from the mountains is fragrant and invigorating and there is healing in the magic waters of the many mineral springs that cluster around in easy access. The present season is a most prosperous one and a pleasant company since the opening of the hotel the middle of June has filled the cool and pleasant rooms. Amusements of all kinds, boating, bathing, quoits, bowling and cards fill up the happy days which pass all too swiftly. There is good music and dancing every evening in the large airy ball room. The river rewards the fisherman with many a rich specimen of bass, salmon, pike, etc. Only this morning a five pound pike was brought in by one of the guests. Capt. Bush, of Cincinnati, one of the proprietors of the springs is an expert fisherman and brings in many handsome catches. Capt. Bush is also a champion whist player and is never happier than when seated at his favorite game. Among the guests here now the largest number are from Louisville, Lexington and the Queen City. We should like to see some from Lancaster. L. P. McC.

Obituary.

On the death of Bessie Arnold who died July 26 1899. She is done with the sinful allurements of time. She has gone to dwell in a happier clime. Where the light of eternity never grows dim. And she with the angels. His praises can hymn.

Dear parents and sisters, I know that your hearts are breaking with grief for the loss of one so dear. But now she is gone, try not to grieve. Let hope of reunion your sorrow relieve. She has left behind her much trouble and care. Nor waiting consumption nor pain will be there. She will shed no more tears, for the valley is crossed. Her bark by the willow, will no more be tossed. She has left us and gone from her suffering and pain. To you it is loss, but to her it is gain. For in her bosom no bitter regret. Was felt, and no fearful misgivings bet. Why should you weep for? why wish her here. When you know she has gone to a happier sphere? To that blissful abode, in the regions of day From earth she passed safely and sweetly away.

And now you have heard the dull fall of the God. Look up and believe her at home with her God. In the home of the pure, and the saved and the blest. To suffer no more but forever at Rest.

Her Cousin, NELSON CO. FANNIE MAY BROWN

Keep Quiet. and use Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for all pains of the stomach and all unnatural looseness of the bowels. It always cures. McRoberts drug store.

The Richmond Register says: Photographer Louis Schlegel had a pair of pretty Pekin ducks on exhibition, but they were outclassed by R. L. Elkin's, of Lancaster, whose ducks were the finest we ever saw. Mr. Elkin also exhibited a pair of black Minorca chickens, which carried off the premium.

During the civil war, as well as in our late war with Spain, diarrhoea was one of the most troublesome diseases the army had to contend with. In many instances it became chronic and the old soldiers still suffer from it. Mr. David Taylor of Wind Ridge, Greene Co., Pa., is one of these. He uses Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and says he never found anything that would give him such quick relief. It is for sale by R. E. McRoberts druggist.

Improvement in Service.

The Lancaster telephone exchange has been undergoing many improvements and is now about the best in Kentucky. Mr. Bastin tells THE RECORD he is considering the plan of making the entire county one exchange, so that subscribers may talk to anyone within the county who owns a 'phone. This would be a great convenience. Another splendid idea is to require all parties not having phones to pay for use of them. Nearly every day some one will enter a business house and use the phone, never offering to pay for it. As these messages are charged up to the renter, it is very unreasonable for parties to use one's phone. Mr. Bastin has a number of changes in view, and will spare neither time nor money to make the service the most complete.

No one knows the unbearable torture, the peculiar and agonizing pain, caused by Piles, unless they have suffered from them. Many believe them incurable. This is a mistake. Proper treatment will cure them. TABLER'S BUCKEYE PILE OINTMENT is an infallible cure. Price, 50 cts. in bottles, tubes 75cts. C. C. & J. E. Stormes.

A party of young folks from this community attended a picnic at Green Brier, Friday Mr. and Mrs. Mike Kennedy chaperoned the crowd. All report an enjoyable time. Mrs. W. G. Dunn after a short illness died Saturday morning, and Sunday at 9 o'clock, after short funeral services at the home, was interred in the Lancaster cemetery. Mrs. Dunn was a worthy member of the Pleasant Grove Church, a kind neighbor and an affectionate wife and mother. We extend sympathy to the bereaved family especially to her only daughter Miss Georgia who will miss her counsel and sympathy, but she has the happy assurance that her loss is her mother's gain.

Mrs. George Durham after suffering intensely for three weeks died Tuesday Aug. 8 at two o'clock. After the funeral services Wednesday afternoon her remains were laid to rest in the cemetery at the Fork. She was a member of the Baptist Church, a good Christian, and was always ready to show kindness to her friends and her neighbors. Those who knew her best loved her most. She leaves a large family to mourn her loss. They have the consolation of knowing that she is enjoying sweet rest, for death is only a dream.

Only a dream, only a dream. And glory b' hind the dark stream. How peaceful the slumber, How happy the making, For death is only a dream.

No Right to Ugliness. The woman who is lovely in face, form and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her health. If she is weak, sickly and all run down, she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or kidney trouble, her impure blood will cause pimply blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. Electric Bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, rich complexion. It will make a good looking, charming woman of a run-down invalid. Only 40 cents at R. E. McRoberts Drug Store.

Dove hunters in the Pennysile could hardly wait for the first of this month to get in the field, and they have lost no time since the dove law expired. They report an abundance of birds in some localities, but an unexpected scarcity in others.
